

Week 1 Literacy Task

LI: to write a narrative

1. I can include a beginning, middle and end
2. I can use inverted commas to punctuate direct speech.
3. To write simple and compound sentences

You are going to write your own story based on Iron Man by Ted Hughes.

Your first task is to create a wordbank of powerful vocabulary that you can use in your story.

Now your main task. Can you write your own story about a creature or monster that appears in the middle of the night? Remember to plan out your ideas and include a beginning, middle and an end to your story. Also remember to think, say, write, check each sentence.

Challenge:

- can you use the spelling words?
- Can you use speech with inverted commas?
- Can you include a range of adverbs?

Struggling to start? Look below for some monsters or creatures that you could use!
