

Literacy WB: Monday 8th June 2020

Genre: Narrative

LI: To write a narrative

Our topic for this half term is Volcanoes

This week for literacy, you will be writing a narrative.

The story must include a volcano.

Here are some ideas for a narrative:

Someone tries to escape from a volcano

Someone looks for lost treasure

You discover a lost city inside a volcano

You will need to plan your story first, this will give you an idea of what your story is going to be about. (This does not need to be submitted)

Remember a story has:

Introduction

Build-up

Problem

Resolution

Ending

Need help?

Volcanoes

volcano

crust

vent

crater

fault

core

conduit

ash

mantle

sill

eruption

ring of fire

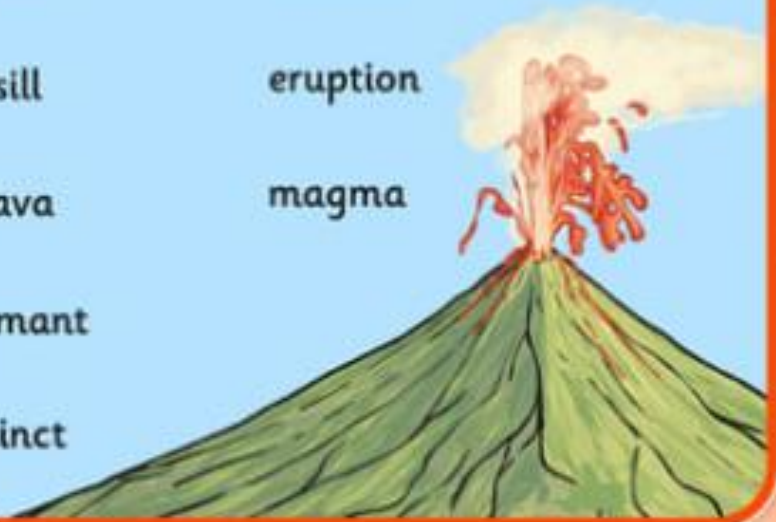

lava

magma

active

dormant

extinct

active
ash
caldera

cinder cone volcano
composite volcano
compound volcano

core
crater
crust
dormant
eruption
extinct
fault
fissures

VOLCANOES

gas
lava
magma
mantle
molten rock
plates
pressure
pyroclastic flow
shield volcano
surface

vent

Story planner!

Characters

- 1
- 2
- 3

Setting:

Climax:

Build up:

Introduction:

Resolution:

Early in the morning, Pedro was awoken by a rumbling noise. This wasn't anything to get excited about as it was a common occurrence. His house, which he shared with his mum and dad, was located next to a giant volcano. However, this was no ordinary volcano; it was the largest in the world! Every other day it would rumble and make the earth tremble. That is why Pedro would call it 'Mr. Rumble.'

Pedro lived in a small village, located just outside Rio De Janeiro...