

Literacy Task

L1: To write a poem

Success Criteria:

- I can include relevant information and ideas in my poetry.
- I can experiment with adjectives to create impact.
- I can use a range of noun phrases in my poetry.

Write about a special place.

- Think about what characteristics make a particular place unique. How is this place different from others? Is it the people, the architecture, or the regional food?
- Writing about a place you already know will help you get to the heart of the place in your writing.

Suggested Format: A Special Place Poem

- My special place There is a place called Central Park
- What I see there Where there are trees like towers.
- What I smell there The scent of summer fills the air
- What I hear there And I hear people laughing
- What I touch there somewhere
- How I feel there My feet touch the grass as I walk,
- What I feel there And I feel very lucky
