	Item	Discussion	Action
1	Matters arising
3	Class Councillors to feedback Key discussion points from this week's agenda about: Home School Diary	Why do we keep a home reading diary?  Hazel – We keep our home reading diary so teachers can know which books people like.  Holly- It helps us to use different stems and vocabulary.  Maple- To improve your vocabulary in Literacy. What should be recorded in this daily?  Hazel- We should record names of books and the dates.  Poplar- Titles, page numbers and different questions. Do you complete your reading diary daily, using a variety of questions from the front? What tips could you share with your classmates?  Redwood-You should use a variety of questions and stems.  Poplar- Everyday have a time so you can read and fill in your diary.  Maple- Choose a different question or stem every day. What question types will you challenge yourself to complete more often in your reading diary?  Poplar- to complete more evaluating questions. Are there any book varieties or authors you would like to see more of in our book boxes?  Cedar- More Roald Dahl books.  Maple- More David Walliams.	As a school council, we will share good examples of recording in reading diaries. Next week, each class to bring an example of a diary that demonstrates these aspects. As a school council, we will focus on promoting the use of a range of challenging questions in our home reading diaries (question pages located in our reading diaries). School Council Competition to celebrate those who are completing an entire book – use of stickers in the back of diaries. Further discussion during Week 6 meeting.
